

A simple guide to RSN online spreadsheets - An Analysis of Additional Affordable Housing

Affordable housing is the sum of social rent, affordable rent, intermediate rent and affordable home ownership. It includes new builds, acquisitions and also homes where the cost is met by a private developer (e.g. Section 106 agreements).

The data used within the analysis is taken from DCLG's official published statistics on gross affordable housing supply. Mid-year population estimates are used to calculate the additional dwellings per 1,000 residents (population estimates taken from Nomis, Official Labour Market Statistics).

To use the analysis, please follow these simple steps:

Using the mouse, select this cell (containing a local authority name).

To the right of the cell, a grey square with a blue triangle appears. Clicking on this presents the full list of options available.
